FARMERS TO ATTEND BIG BULL AUCTION

Livestock Men Greatly Interested in Pure Bred Sire Campaign in State

Between 2,000 and 3,000 farmers are expected next Thursday, June 2, at the first of the Farmers Better Sire Sales to be held at the Bourbon Stock Yards by the Louisville Livestock Exchange and the Kentucky Purebred Livestock Association. Three hundred pure bred bulls will be sold at auction on this occasion.

According to L. B. Shropshire, secretary of the Kentucky Purebred Livestock Association, some of the finest bulls in the state will be offered at this sale. The bulls will begin arriving Sunday and the majority of them is expected to be in the pens at the stockyards by Tuesday night or Wednesday morning.

That the character of animals will be high is shown by two of the bulls "White King," and the "Butterby King," sent by T. E. Wilson and Co., Packers, of Chicago. Others equally highbred will be put on the market by the Kentucky breeders.

As the indication of the breed contributing to the sale the following list, which is only partial, is given:

Fourteen bulls will be entered by Carpenter and Ross, of Mansfield, O., one of the largest and best known breeding firms in the country.

Shorthorns will be entered by J. H. Calloway, Smithfield, Ky.; W. R. Moorman and Son, Glendene, Ky.; L. L. Dorsey, Anchorage; Holly Witherspoon, Lawrenceburg; A. H. Robertson Springfield; and F. B. Lacey, of Pembroke.

Herefords will be offered by Giltner Bros., of Eminence; P. B. Gaines, Carrollton; General E. H. Wood, Paigeville; Speth, Phelps & Jackson, Eminence; H. H. Drain, Eminence; Doolan Bros., Finchville; Robinson S. Brown Harrods Creek; James L. Cleveland, Paynes Depot; Felix Swore Georgetown; Alex Wallace, Cerrilan; J. B. Wadlington, Princeton; and Lisle Bros., Leitchfield.

Angus bulls will be offered by C. R. Harmon, Lebanon; A. D. Bradshaw, Danville; A. B. Sawyer, St. Matthews; Gold & Robinson, Danville; Adam Waschick Franklin; J. A. Stewart, Louisville; and G. A. Parkhurst, Springfield.

Among the experts to be present will be J. L. Torney, field representative of the American Short Horn, Hereford and Angus Record Association. The committee in charge of bringing the bulls here consists of C. F. Maren, of Pains Depot; P. A. Thomas, of Shelbyville; and C. R. Harmon, of Lebanon.

The committee in charge of the sale consists of the following members of the Louisville Live Stock Exchange: W. S. Bell, who chairman; E. L. German, secretary; Clay McCandless, treasurer; G. A. Brch, general manager of the Bourbon stock yards; and B. Mattingly and Charles Knight.

A letter received by W. S. Bell, president of the Louisville Live Stock Exchange, from Morris & Co., of Chicago, declares that the sale is attracting great attention in that city.

"I personally think that this better livestock movement is one of the greatest steps ever undertaken by a livestock exchange and feel that the good work you are doing will show results very soon. If everybody will do his part in this line it will not be long until it will be a mighty hard matter to find any of the scrub breeds in our great country. Keep up the good work and I am sure others will follow. If we can do anything for you along these lines, we will certainly lend a hand."

The communication is signed by George W. Chandler.

The bull sale will start at 10 o'clock Thursday morning and is expected to last two days. The three auctioneers for the occasion are the best that can be obtained.
